

Milam County burn ban is lifted temporarily due to recent rains until further notice. Before any significant burns are undertaken, notify your local fire department before proceeding. Do not burn if high winds are in the forecast.